Profile

2021 – 2023 📍 Lam Dong
Student – Specialized in Literature
Bao Loc High School for the Gifted

Built strong communication and teamwork skills through group assignments and school projects. Gained experience working under deadlines in a competitive academic setting.

2023 - Now 📍 Ho Chi Minh
Major: Multimedia Application Development
Posts and Telecommunications Institute of Technology

Acquired multidisciplinary knowledge in multimedia application development, including visual design, UI/UX, video production, and fundamental programming. Gained adaptability by learning to use a wide range of software tools, enhancing my ability to quickly adjust to new creative and technical environments. Built a strong foundation in visual arts through courses in design principles, composition, and aesthetics, which significantly improved my design thinking and pattern skills. Developed hands-on experience in photography, videography, and post-production editing. Strengthened self-learning abilities and teamwork through collaborative design and programming projects, contributing actively to both technical execution and creative ideation.
